2 March 1976

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: FBI Comments on CFI Directive

1. Mr. William O. Cregar of the FBI called on 1 March 1976 to say that he did not know whether the FBI Intelligence Bureau should be in the NFIP. The Attorney General is in the process of issuing guidelines for the FBI. If these guidelines give the FBI a role in positive intelligence collection in the U.S., then the Intelligence Bureau should be in the NFIP. If there is no PI role, then they should not be included.

2. Mr. Cregar stated that final determination on whether the FBI Intelligence Bureau will be included in the NFIP should be deferred until the Attorney General's guidelines are issued. The guidelines are expected shortly.
